

Thrive bridges the gap

Closing the gap between those in need of assistance and the supports that exist in our community

One stop shop: folks can find the answers they're looking for

No documentation required: our services are open to everyone

Why people meet with us lack of technology literacy or access literacy challenges confusion about local resources language barriers

a big life change that requires multiple supports comprehension or understanding challenges

PARTNER WITH US

By partnering with Housing to Thrive, you are directly supporting Central Oregonians with emergency rental and deposit assistance, application fees and basic needs support.

How to become a partner:

- Make a set donation on every home closed
- Encourage your brokerage or organization to participate company-wide
- Recruit fellow colleagues in the industry
